

Frequently Asked Questions and Guidance

Why did I receive notice to complete the Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest?

Executive Order 15-09 requires employees and officers under the jurisdiction of the Governor who are required to file a Statement of Economic Interest with the Secretary of State also to submit the Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest to the Executive Ethics Commission. Your agency has identified you as an employee or officer who is required to complete the Statement of Economic Interest filed with the Secretary of State.

If I complete this Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest, do I need to complete the regular Statement of Economic Interest form as well?

Yes. The Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest and the Statement of Economic Interest to be filed with the Secretary of State are two separate filings. You should receive notice from the Secretary of State's Office about the regular Statement of Economic Interest process towards the end of March. You will need to complete both filings.

Is my agency subject to Executive Order 15-09?

Agencies, boards and commissions under the jurisdiction of the Governor are subject to Executive Order 15-09. Employees and officers of the legislative or judicial branches of government are not subject to the Executive Order 15-09. Employees of other executive branch constitutional offices, i.e. Secretary of State, Attorney General, Comptroller and Treasurer, are not subject to Executive Order 15-09. You may wish to contact your agency's legal counsel or ethics officer if you are uncertain of your agency's status.

I am a member of the General Assembly. Why did I receive notice to complete a Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest?

You may be serving by gubernatorial appointment on an executive branch board or commission, and forms were sent to all members of the board or commission. This form need not be completed by members of the General Assembly.

I do not think that I should be included among those persons required to file the Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest. How do I make sure that I did not receive the form in error?

If you believe that you should not be included among those who are required to complete the Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest, you should contact your agency's ethics officer.

I have read all of the guidance but still have a question about one of the required disclosures. Where can I get more guidance?

Your ethics officer is ready to assist in this process.

Do I need my ethics officer to review my Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest prior to its submittal?

Note that your agency's ethics officer will have viewing rights to your submitted Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest and may contact you after submission to discuss any issues they identify. Correction after submission of disclosures made in error will be completed via a manual process.

Will I be able to get a copy of my Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest after electronic filing?

You will be given an opportunity to print or save a PDF of your submittal at the time of submittal. Your completed Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest will be maintained in a comprehensive database.

I made an error when I submitted my Supplemental Statement of Economic Interest. How do I correct my error?

Correction of errors is a manual process. You will need to complete a paper version of the SSEI and submit the signed form to the Executive Ethics Commission, 401 S. Spring Street, Wm. Stratton Building, Room 513, Springfield, Illinois, 62706.
